BISBEE NEWS.

Daily Happenings at the Great Copper Camp.

Budget of Interesting Items from our Regular Correspondent.

Bisbee, Nov. 24, 1896.
 COPPERINGS.

Wm. Shilliam of Benson, who came in yesterday on a short business trip, returned to his home this morning.

Ed Land returned to town this evening after an absence of several weeks, the greater part of which time has been spent in law business at the county seat.

Dr. D. A. Clark, a specialist on the eye and ear, who has been practicing here for the past month, left for Globe this morning. He intends to remain there for a month at least.

Mr. George A. Metcalf, the former principal of our school here, came in on the train this evening for a short visit to his many friends. He had to make a trip down this way on business and concluded that he might pass a few more pleasant hours by paying his old home a visit. Mr. Metcalf was always well liked by the people of Bisbee and they are always glad to see his jovial countenance.

Alex. Kier and Johnny Bowen, the bear hunters or, more properly speaking, the "dog killers," returned yesterday afternoon from their trip to San Bernardino. They were rather disappointed at the scarcity of game and at Mike Cunningham's early desertion of the scene but had a good time for all that. In regard to Michael's sudden attack of home sickness we will say that we were much surprised for a few days but we have since found out that it was not a case of home sickness at all. It was more properly a disease of that little organ called the heart, according to all recent reports, and his little story about the scarcity of game in the vicinity was too coarse to entertain for a moment. The fact of the matter is, and we are sorry for his sake to mention it, that the young gentleman was cross in love. He has our deepest sympathy in his sorrow, but we think he'll pull through all right.

A rather unusual incident happened up town yesterday afternoon and created quite a little amusement for the time being. A number of Indians came into town for the purpose of selling horses and burros. They were displaying these animals in the upper part of town when a Mexican came along and, without a word, mounted a burro and rode off. The poor owner was entirely at a loss as to what to do he had never encountered any such treatment in all his previous dealings. Some bystanders, however, hoping to see some fun, gave him the cue and informed him that the proper thing to do was to catch the Mexican, give him a thrashing and take the burro away. The Indians immediately proceeded to carry out his instructions but was only able to perform the acts in part owing to the speed with which the Mexican abandoned the burro and left the vicinity when almost overtaken. The noble red man is now onto the ropes, however, and we bet the next one who tries to meander off with one of his burros.

"We had an epidemic of dysentery in this vicinity last summer," says Samuel S. Peacock of Berkeley, Cal. "I was taken with it and suffered severely until some one called my attention to Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy. I procured a bottle and felt better after the first dose. Before one-half of the bottle had been used I was well. I recommended it to my friends and their experience was the same. We all unite in saying it is the best" for sale by Druggists.

Last August while working in the barvest field I became overheated, was suddenly attacked with cramps and was nearly dead. Mr. Cummings, the druggist, gave me a dose of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy which completely relieved me. I now keep a bottle of the remedy handy. A. M. BUNNELL, Centerville, Wash. For sale by Druggists.
